DNR Aquatic Reserves Citizen Steward and Outreach Coordinator

Intern will support existing citizen stewardship committees that carry out stewardship on reserves, staff a table at outreach events, attend partner meetings, and carry out public outreach and education for reserves.

- ▶ No age limits.
- ▶ Opportunities can roll into other internships and gain experience in new exciting projects
- ▶ Highly flexible hours/schedules for students or any other needs.
- ▶ Chance for ingenuity and creativity.
- ▶ Close collaboration with state agencies and local partners.
- ▶ High quality experience in environmental restoration/preservation.

Seeking a volunteer coordinator for the Aquatic Reserve Program near Anacortes, Bellingham, Whidbey, and Vashon Island. Intern will work with citizen committees that conduct citizen science projects on aquatic reserves, help organize volunteer workdays and events, and occasionally work with Puget Sound Corps teams.

Candidates must be highly independent and willing to work some Saturdays; exhibit excellent communication skills and ability to cheerfully work outdoors in inclement weather and physically challenging conditions. Desirable experience includes interest in/knowledge of marine environment and near shore, designing flyers and outreach materials, using Excel and Word.

Training will be provided, and the citizens will also help train the position on near shore science.

Aquatic Reserves Citizen Steward and Outreach Coordinator is a pilot program provided in collaboration with the Washington State Department of Natural Resources (DNR) www.dnr.wa.gov and WA State Department of Veterans Affairs http://www.dva.wa.gov/vet_conservation_corps.html
